INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY REPORT ON PATENTABILITY

International application No.
PCT/RU2004/000006

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims 1-9	YES
	Claims _____	NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims 1-9	YES
	Claims _____	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims 1-9	YES
	Claims _____	NO

2. Citations and explanations (Rule 70.7)

This report makes reference to the following documents cited in the search report:

D1: RU 2164719 C1	D2: DE 19753494 A1
D3: US 6323109 B1	D4: US 6306730 B2.

A method for producing a silicon on insulator structure is claimed in claim 1 and independent claims 2-9.

Each of the documents D2-D4 discloses a method for producing silicon on insulator structures wherein hydrogen ions are implanted on a silicon wafer, and the silicon wafer and the substrate are joined, bonded, and delaminated on the implanted layer.

The prior art closest to the method disclosed in claim 1 is the method for producing silicon on insulator structures according to D1, wherein, in addition to the features mentioned above, after the hydrogen ions are implanted on the wafer, the silicon wafer and substrate are chemically treated.

Box No. V

Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

Neither D1 nor D2-D4, however, discloses the features of claim 1 that after chemical treatment, drying takes place, physically adsorbed substances are removed from the surface of the wafer and the substrate, the wafer and substrate are joined, they are bonded and delaminated on the implanted layer of the wafer in one stage, at a low vacuum pressure, and at a temperature at which hydrogen introduced during implantation remains in the silicon in the bound state.

The above-mentioned distinguishing features, which serve to improve the quality of silicon on insulator structures owing to the reduced concentration of defects and the virtually total absence of bubbles on the surface of the structures and in the silicon film, are not obvious.

Consequently, claim 1 and dependent claims 2-9 meet the requirements of novelty and inventive step. Claims 1-9 meet the requirement of industrial applicability.
